Auto Wake-up & Sleep Function

keyCover-Air is a docking stand for the iPad Air that also doubles up as a Bluetooth keyboard. It includes an aluminium back cover for added protection, and has a magnetic clip that snaps the iPad into place. Despite its small and compact size the keyboard offers maximized key spacing for a comfortable typing experience. Its aluminium outer shell protects your iPad against accidental bumps and knocks and the specifically placed magnets provide auto-sleep and wake functionality. This makes keyCover-Air a compact yet professional iPad keyboard.
